Foundation for Blind Children

ABOUT US

This summer, eight blind students from the FBC and 16 guides will trek to the 19,340 ft. summit of Mt. Kilimanjaro in Tanzania, Africa.

International Mountain Specialist Kevin Cherilla will lead the group. Kevin has guided over 100 hikers, ages 13 to 79, to the summit including two blind individuals. Visit our Web site to read each climber's story and follow him/her through their training, and ultimately, their summit.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Founded in 1952, the FBC is the only agency of its kind in Arizona. The number of blind and referred babies has increased over 300% in the last ten years and FBC has served the needs of over 2,000 in just the last year alone. FBC has a pressing need for non-experienced as well as certified volunteers. Just visit our Web site for detailed information.

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

FBC has a great many needs, large and small. Please visit SeeItOurWay.org and click the link to Wish List.

COMMUNITY ACHIEVEMENTS

FBC was awarded the 21st Annual Valley Partnership Project in November 2008. This community project created an atmosphere of learning and adaptive recreation for our visually impaired students, including orientation and mobility training, cane walking, tactile and sensory, interaction, a shady play environment for our glare intolerant students as well as adaptive swing sets. Thanks to Valley Partnership, project sponsors and volunteers, FBC students are overjoyed to have a new playground and play houses!

MISSION STATEMENT

To equip godly leaders to serve Jesus Christ effectively in a changing world by providing theological education, personal mentoring and ministry training in partnership with the local church.

SERVICE AREA

Since 1994, Phoenix Seminary has taken the lead to support all evangelical churches in Arizona to reach the five million people in this state with the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Phoenix Seminary

ABOUT US

Dr. Darryl DelHousaye became President of Phoenix Seminary in February 2006 after 35 years in pastoral ministry, 25 years as Senior Pastor of Scottsdale Bible Church. His extensive background has given him broad experience within the Christian community. His strong leadership abilities combined with skilled exposition of biblical truth enable him to create vision and inspiration for the future of Phoenix Seminary.

COMMUNITY ACHIEVEMENTS

We are committed to partnering with local churches throughout the greater-Phoenix metropolitan area in training and equipping our students for real-life ministry. We utilize academically qualified local pastors as adjunct professors and many pastors and church leaders are involved in our mentoring, internship and practicum programs as well. Our faculty and students also regularly teach lay classes.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

In 1999, Holly DelHousaye formed a non-profit ministry, Prickly Perspectives, Inc., for the purpose of mentoring women throughout the community. The materials she has developed over the last nine years have been refined and edited into a curriculum called SoulWork. For general information about Soulwork or for specific information about the mentoring groups, contact: Mary Jane Farr at mjfarr@ncs-az.net.

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

Phoenix Seminary is a recognized 501-c3 non-profit organization. As such, we depend on investors to help cover the costs of educating our students. We estimate that tuition and fees cover only 40% of the costs, and therefore, the generosity of our investor friends is crucial to our success. In addition to covering our general operating expenses, investors can also help us realize the goals of our Building Fund and Endowment Fund.

"Some say a home is your biggest investment.
We believe children are."
